The Law of Attraction Can Build Your Business

There are times when things seem unexpectedly to come our way. There will be an unexpected phone call or visit that will set things in motion. We have all heard of people who succeeded simply because they always seem to be in the right place at the right time. There are many words that are used in order to explain such happenings. Words like coincidence, serendipity, fate, luck, karma. Sayings like, "what goes around comes around" and so on. All of these words and expressions are different ways of summing up what is known as the Law of Attraction.

The Law of Attraction is very simply defined as that which attracts towards your life anything that you pay attention to, focus on, or spend energy on, whether you actually want it or not. You can use the Law of Attraction to build your business. The principles of the Law of Attraction can get you more clients, contracts, referrals, business partners, and of course money.

The first thing you need to know is how people use Declarative Statements and how they affect the Law of Attraction. A Declarative Statement is basically a positive expression targeted to that which you wish to attract. Such a statement leads to better feelings and moods. There are many forms of Declarative Statements and some of them may sound very egoistic in nature but that is how the whole thing works. If you are shy of being confident then you will have trouble working through the Law of Attraction.

Most of the time, failure in people is basically a subconscious acceptance of negative Declarative Statements. For example, saying things like, "My money always goes out faster than it comes in", or, "Business is good only around special occasions," are negative statements. Anything that makes you feel bad or say something negative about yourself or your business is a negative Declarative Statement.

The Law of Attraction will attract anything that you pay attention to. Stick to the positive and you will attract the positive. Keep thinking about the negative and that is all you will attract. The Law of Attraction does not care whether you want something or not or whether it will be good for you or not. It simply takes your current mood or feeling and goes ahead with it.

Every time you think something negative you should immediately dismiss it from your mind and rethink something positive. You will note and immediate improvement in your mood and feeling.

How To Attract Anything You Want In Life

Every time you make a negative Declarative Statement as yourself, "What do I want?" Focus on that aspect and rethink your thoughts. Once you know what you want you also know if it is good for you or not and you are bound to choose only that which is good.

You must practice on this until it becomes a habit so that you never have any negative thoughts. After a few days you will see that merely thinking positive will start making a healthy affect on your life and business.

The Law of Attraction And Home Based Business

The Law of Attraction has been around for many years now. Though it was always quite popular among the self-help seekers and practitioners it is only recently that it has gathered worldwide attention as a major factor that influences our lives both personal and professional. The Law of Attraction has been discussed in detail by many prominent personalities and has found its way into many shows.

The Law of Attraction has a very simple definition that goes, "like attracts like". What the Law of Attraction states is that if you can think of it then you can achieve it. Human history is full of examples that prove this statement to be true. For example someone had to think that humans could fly in heavier-than-air planes.

Someone had to think up the steam engine. Someone had to picture a motorized carriage that would not need horses. All our progress in agricultures, technology, and the various branches of science is proof positive that human beings have the gift of realizing their dreams and making their imaginations come true. Thus we go from the horse to the car to the plane and faster than sound travel. All of this because someone thought that there has to be a faster way to travel.

The same Law of Attraction also applies to home based business. As mentioned earlier the Law of Attraction states that like attracts like. So if you firmly believe that you can succeed at home based business then you are bound to attract everything that will help you achieve that goal. As long as you are patient, persevering, and are completely committed and confident in your own success then there is no reason why you will not.

Success is often seen as something hard to achieve but this is simply because most people are already tuned into failure. An attitude like, "this will never work" or "I cannot do this" automatically predisposes them to failure even before they start. The successful people do not bother thinking about whether something will work or if they can do something or not. They approach everything positively. If this does not work then something else will but until it has stopped working they remain confident in the fact that they are doing the right thing. When you focus on the positive you attract more positivity towards yourself. This means that everyone around you will also share in your positive outlook and thereby the chances of success improve immediately.

Most often people start a home business to pay off some bills, to get rid of their boss, to set their own hours, and so on. There is clarity in their thoughts about what they really want and this leads to failure because ambiguity leads to confusion. You must ask yourself what you really want and be clear that what you want is not a substitute for something else. If you started a home business for more money then how much money you want to make? Just to pay off some bills, fund your education, pay off the mortgage, or to get seriously rich?

You must be clear in your goals if you are to achieve them.

The Law of Attraction And Getting Clients

Running your own business can often lead to problems like not having enough clients to stay afloat. This can lead to stress and worries about finances and the chances of surviving another year without going into debt. If you are currently in such a position then it may be a good idea for you to read about the Law of Attraction and how it can help you to shift your position to a better one.

The first thing to do is the stop worrying. Yes, you have probably heard of it many times. People are always saying that you should not worry but worry seems to find you on its own. The thing is that worry is not going to bring you what you need. What you need to do is focus on what you want rather than worry about is not being with you already. You must keep yourself open to receiving what you want. Thinking negatively closes the doors and brings in more negativity. So if you keep worrying about not having enough clients you will lose more clients. Instead be happy with the ones you have and stay positive that you will have more clients soon, without any doubt.

Sometimes people are not clear on what they really want. For example, if you are worrying you do not have enough clients then do you want more clients or are clients merely a bridge to what you really want, like money for instance. Your conscious and unconscious minds work differently. The thinking mind would naturally equate more clients with more money but the subconscious is only concerned with money. You cannot think clearly until both your minds are working in sync.

This means that you must focus on what you really want instead of what you think will fix the problem. Until you are completely clear in your mind what you want you will never achieve the kind of success that makes you envious. It may be only the slightest shift in how you think and you will be alright. The more clearly you focus on your goals consciously and subconsciously the better you are prepared to achieve them.

You must focus on everything positive and make it a habit not to dwell on the negative. Always keep in mind how you wish your life to be instead of complaining about how it is. The Law of Attraction will attract whatever you focus on. Focus on the negative and you will get only negativity. Focus on good things and good things will be attracted to you.

Often times you will be told to be practical. While this advice makes a lot of sense it is sometimes not entirely true. The human instinct is a powerful tool. If you deeply feel that you ought to do something then you should do it provided it is positive. Do not deprive yourself of your instinct to prove you are practical. It is important to relax and let your thinking mind take a break while you follow your feelings every once in a while.

The Law of Attraction And Network Marketing

The Law of Attraction can make a huge and positive impact on your personal life as well as professional future. One of the biggest growing fields of business is network marketing and nothing can help you create a network faster and better than the Law of Attraction.

There are many excellent examples of how the Law of Attraction has been used by individuals to better their personal and professional status. The Law of Attraction can bring success in business and also lead to better and stronger personal relationships with clients and intimates. Despite all this there are very few people who actually bother to find out what the Law of Attraction can do for them. Not only does the law affect the goal but it also has a positive impact on the path taken to reach the goal.

The Law of Attraction is based on the principle that like attracts like. This simply means that the more positive you think the more positivity you will attract. Thinking of success will lead to success and pondering or worrying about failure will only bring more failure. Even in moments of failure or negativity it is crucial to stay focused on the positive and not give in to negativity. The Law of Attraction is blind in the sense that it simply takes your thoughts and feelings and brings about more of the same. By staying positive you are forcing the Law of Attraction to bring you good things. If you want something then do not think of what will happen if you do not get it. That is futile. Instead focus on all the good things that will happen once you do get it. The more positive you think the closer you will be to achieving whatever you desire. All you need to do is apply this to network marketing and you too can become a powerful networker.

As stated earlier, the most important thing is to stay positive. Thinking positive will attract more positivity.

This positive feeling will in turn define your actions that will eventually lead to a positive outcome. Once you are doing this constantly it will be noticed by everyone you meet and you will have no trouble passing on your positivity and passion to others. The more you can ignite them with your own fervor the better and bigger your network will become. Remember that people are more willing to spend money on something that excites and interests them and makes them feel good. Share your positivity and they will readily become part of your network.

The next thing is to be clear on your goals and what exactly you want. Do not be ambiguous otherwise you will only get more ambiguity in return. Visualization is the key to realizing your goals. You must be able to see yourself succeeding in your mind. Write down about your success and read it to yourself. This makes things real because humans do not read in words but think in pictures what they read

The Law of Attraction In Sales And Marketing

The Law of Attraction is one of the most popular areas of personal development today. The Law of Attraction is very simple stated as follows: You will attract towards you whatever you focus on. What this means is that what you think of most is likely to represent your reality in the future. So if you keep thinking of yourself as successful and happy then your life will automatically steer itself in that direction. If you keep too much negativity inside you then you will attract only more of the same. In other words, a positive mindset will help you achieve what you want and a negative attitude will only multiply your failure. The more strongly you believe in yourself and your own happiness and success the more you focus on all the good things that can happen to you and the more you cut out all negative thoughts out of your life the better you will live.

It is important to understand how the Law of Attraction affects people in sales and marketing.

The Law of Attraction says that you will receive what you give. When you are making a sale you must focus on giving the clients more than what they expect. If you focus on closing the sale then that is all you will achieve. Instead think of building a relationship, be positive and infuse your clients with your positivity. Make them think like you think about what you are selling.

A lot depends on the "unique selling point" of your product so keep your USPs handy. If you are good at something then use it to distinguish yourself from your competitors. If something makes you unique then you can use that as your USP. If you have received compliments from your clients then think about what brought forward those compliments. Did they say they found you cheerful, friendly, reliable, easy to talk to, or something else? Make the list and work on it. You will discover that they are your customers not because of your product but because of you. Working on what makes you unique is also a good way to build confidence. The more people like you the more you will like yourself and that will increase the positivity you radiate. Your clients will subconsciously feel that positive attitude and will respond positively to whatever you say.

Do not set limits on yourself. Most failure comes from acknowledging some lack in yourself. Do not hold back because you think you cannot do something. The simply approach is to just do the thing and watch the results.

How To Attract Anything You Want In Life

Sometimes you will have this nagging feeling that the only answer you are going to get is "no". Take a hint from telemarketers, they never let any number of negative responses stop them, they just keep going.

You must believe that your clients like talking to you. This can only happen if you work on how they can benefit every time they speak to you. Remember that it is not all about making a sale. Above all else you must always approach your clients with the attitude that they will do something positive for you.

Laws of Attraction - The Alpha Male Mentality

Interactions between the males species has always been with the survival philosophy of "survival of the fittest." The male that survives is chosen based on strong breed This is especially true in animal pack societies, in which the alpha male would be the only one among the pack. His job would be to get all the females pregnant so the species could continue to live.

Alpha males in the Animal Kingdom

The male human species look upon this situation strangely with a hint of pensiveness. what would it be like to be the top king of the gang? To be the one who procreates to survive. However, those males do not understand that the alpha male becomes this title not by a birthright but by proving time and again that he is the strongest and the most intelligent to survive. Yet, should another male challenge the alpha male to a duel, then the alpha male must fight in order to keep his back. Should he decline, it will be removed from him. This is to ensure that the species indeed continue to exist because the alpha male is likely to rear strong children.

This is good for the animal kingdom but what does this do for the human race. How do the two relate. In fact, there are alpha males in the human race. Yet the criteria for these alpha males are set differently than those in the animal kingdom. These are five categories of alphas in the human race. They are: the powerful alpha, intellectual alpha, military alpha, bad boy alpha and the artistic alpha

Definitions of the Four Alpha Males -

In the powerful alpha, it is the man who has the greatest and most power. This holds true with their community, family and friends as well as their business. Women who are engrossed to this type of alpha are looking at business tycoons, politicians and possibly even royalty. It's because woman want these positions and the power that the position brings to it.

Intellectual Alpha - Men who are smart on any topics or subjects. These men are likely to go through school to get their PhDs and are likely to save the world. Where these males can be found in their offices and work places along with their counterparts...their mates.

Military alpha - these are the men women tend to love. Women love men in uniform because they have "power", have an adventurous sense as well as a job that can be brought and talked about although the phrase, "that's classified" would be a mood killer. Their mates know that the military alpha will be out of country a good part of the time so bonding is never very big.

The bad boy alpha can take on many forms. He can be of military Special Forces or with black ops. He can have a dappled past and one criminal element that may have a price on his head. He may not strike about conversations and talk a lot but he assumes the woman he is with will know what he wants or needs.

The artistic alpha would be the type to sell drawings in museums but have his showings somewhere exotic. This type of male is of the romantic side and women will be adorned by this alpha.

Do the males you know fit into one of these five categories? Every woman has wanted to date at least one of them. As the military marines' saying goes, "the few, the proud, we're the alpha males."

Law Of Attraction - Study Of How Different Cultures React On Dating

When a person attracts the attention of the one that have an interest in, it's only half the battle. Now that this interest has been piqued, where do you go from here?

Since the world is one big melting pot with the many different cultures in it, it is not simple to ask the love of your life or rather that affection that melts your heart and keeps you sane, for supper and drinks. There are many different rules on dating since there are many diverse cultures. While asking someone out could be simple, this often times not the case because any violations of differing cultures can make you a person of distaste and be ridiculed in the eyes of the one person who you wish to impress most.

Many, if not most, individuals comprehend that not all the societies have identical views on relationships between a man and a woman. This means typically any minor infractions in the relationship are bound to go unnoticed. Yet, it is still important to understand the guidelines in your mate's culture. The people of the United States have, to a great extent, looser view on dating positions than those held by other countries.

America's view on Dating

In America, physical touching is allowed on the very first date...although only hand holding and kissing at the end of the night is expected so long as both parties are interested in doing so. Should this not be the case of both parties, then the date would be long, boring and rather uneventful.

Eastern World views on dating

In the Eastern and Asian countries, including Korea and Japan, dating may be allowed but unlike Americans, public shows of affection and physical interaction are scowled at. In many cases, kissing and hand holding may not be at ease for the folks of this area. This is especially true if they are in front of strangers.

How To Attract Anything You Want In Life

In other parts of the world, dating is not done at all. In fact, it is discouraged. Should a man and woman like each other, it is anticipated that their ultimate solution or goal would be to get married. Every step should be done with marriage being the ultimate realization of the goal.

Arranged marriages in other cultures

Yet, there are still several cultures where members determine who will date who from another family. It is under the assumption that who they choose will take the time to get to know the other and will join in on family events. Doing otherwise is thought of as rude and insulting. In other cultures though, joining on the family gatherings should not be done until marriage is established.

There is no doubt, there are pitfalls when trying to form a bond across cultural dividers. If a person wants to date someone outside their culture, they should take the time to study how the person's courtship works. This is to avoid any issues that could arise.

The Law of Attraction and Your Body

Financial freedom? This is a success many people try to obtain. For many people, the Law of Attraction has worked for them. It has also helped them obtain fuller lives through enhanced affairs. This law, the Law of Attraction, can indeed have an effect of the body.

First, think of how this law works. Whether you realize it or not, the human body is made up of energy that is either positive or negative. This factor depends on whether the person wants to think more on the positive aspects of life or the negative ones. Life is made up of both good and bad experiences, which make us grow.

These good and bad factors affect not only the person it happens to but others as well. Should you want only positive energy, then focusing only on the good aspects on life is what you need to do. A good way to use this Law of Attraction process is by visualization.

Competitors employ a technique called Visual Motor Rehearsal to see what potential actions will hold. This practice is a Law of Attraction. Let's take the example of hooking them up to a monitor and have them practice the event on their mind. It would show that the athlete's muscles obeying their thoughts although the muscles weren't being actively used. When the actual competition occurred, the athletes are much prepared for the event as if they were doing the practicing all along. This is a form of Law of Attraction.

With this type of law, being able to feel the realism of plans and imaginings coming true is pretty nice. Using visualization during the Law of Attraction, it can help with any physical task you will begin or undertake.

Should you be thinking about climbing Mt. Fuji, using the Law of Attraction to see it occurring and then believing it, makes you think it can happen. Positive feelings envelop the person about the accomplishment about to be taken and then it comes back to you as positive energy.

It can also be used for healing. Medicine, when needed, should be used. It thought that by using the Law of Attraction, that medication can be facilitated greatly when it is used with positive energy or positive thoughts.

How To Attract Anything You Want In Life

Remember the placebo effect? That health or behavior improvement is not attributed to medicine or treatment. That should prove that positive thinking does have an effect on one's well being. If a person feels good about medicine they have to take, the more likely they are to be healed by said medication. This occurs even when the medicine is a sugar pill or a scientific formula used to cure or aid illnesses.

Not to say that some diseases need medicine and treatments. It is these people who need medication to survive a disease or live with a disease that often times get depressed or even discouraged. So long as these folks remain positive and have a positive outlook, then there is an improved likelihood of survival.

Half of using this Law of Attraction is seeing in the mind the course of being well. If you come to believe you are getting better, than it will be so. Remember to try and dwell on the happy or positive side of life and surround yourself with positive thinking and a positive atmosphere. Be around things you enjoy thus keeping up the focus of positive energy.

Law Of Attraction - Raising Your Attraction Potential

It is clear what the law of attraction is all about: to choose a mate best suited by their skill to endure although it is not their only factor when determining the human match. It leaves great deal for leeway for those people have not found the niche with associates of the opposite sex. Yet there are five techniques that can be used to exponentially increase the impending attraction.

Attraction tip #1 - Dressing for Success - It is easy to forget that over the lessons of the day, the way a person presents themselves will determine how others' opinions of them will help or hinder in finding a mate.. It is important that people take pride in themselves. Remember the old saying... first impressions are everything. There is no second chance to make an impression. A person forms their opinion of you based on how you look, not what matters on the inside. Select attire that are relaxed but fit you well and in style plus colors that are gratifying to the person. Anyone can create an optimistic feeling to those of the opposite sex.

If you feel like you need a little help in this area, a sales clerk at a retail-clothing store can help in selecting clothing that is just right for a person. Many have been in the industry for a long time so they are pleased to lend their experience in putting their customers in clothing that suits them and putting their foot in the doorway of attraction. This also helps them in getting customers to return to their shop.

Attraction Tip #2 - Get a Hobby - With today's busy lifestyle, most of it revolving around work. Not many people have a hobby anymore, with them focusing all their time on work. Work does not give us an enormous deal of time to talk with other people. But getting a hobby increases those chances dramatically. It shows others that you have something other than work in your life. You don't want to be remembered as a workaholic.

Attraction Tip #3 - Keep Up on Current Events - This provides excellent communication interaction between people. You can be in a group and know what people are talking about if you keep up on the current events. You do not want to be the only one not chiming in on the important details.
